DENISE COTE, District Judge:

By Order of March 15, 2020, the parties were requested to confer as to whether the defendant's sentencing scheduled for March 20 should proceed in light of the COVID-19 outbreak. On March 18, the defendant filed a letter informing the Court that he wished to proceed with the March 20 sentencing.

The Court takes notice that the World Health Organization has described COVID-19 as a pandemic and that New York City has declared a state of emergency.¹ The Court also takes notice that New York State has continued to impose new measures to enforce social distancing in the interest of public health.²

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the defendant shall confer with his counsel as to whether he wishes to proceed with the sentencing scheduled for March 20 at 2:30 pm by videoconference. If the defendant wishes to waive his constitutional right to an in-person sentencing, he must do so knowingly and voluntarily, as set forth in United States v. Salim, 690 F.3d 115, 122-124 (2d Cir. 2012).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that counsel for the defendant shall inform the Court by March 20 at 9:00 am as to whether he wishes to proceed by videoconference.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if the defendant does not wish to proceed by videoconference, the March 20 sentencing is adjourned until May 8, 2020 at 2:30 pm.
